

I am writing in regard to the challenge to Indiana's telephone privacy law from the consumer bankers association (CBA). Please protect our privacy and families by not allowing banks and other commercial businesses to make unsolicited sales calls into our homes. I ask that the exemption be denied.
Thank you, Debbie Forrey